Introduction

Thank you for your interest in supporting Social Impact in the Regions 2026 (#SIITR26). SIITR26 has been designed specifically for people who create and invest in social impact in regional Australian communities.

The audience will comprise of (est) 250 changemakers who currently work or volunteer as not for profit managers or board members, social entrepreneurs, social impact investors and policy makers.

The conference will be held 3-5 September in Stanthorpe QLD.

Exhibitor Kit

Conference exhibitors will have access to the audience throughout the three conference days via our conference 'hub' and also online via the delegate digital showbag. There are additional opportunities to showcase your organisation or business throughout the Stanthorpe CBD.

Stand

Access to conference events

Your package includes an all-events ticket throughout the conference including social events

Exhibitor acknowledgement

Shout outs for your organisation to our audience leading into the event and at the event directing foot traffic to your stand

The Program

#SIITR26 will be held between 2-4 September 2026. It will incorporate plenary sessions, masterclasses and workshops, a living library, local tours and immersive experiences and a range of action learning sets.

#SIITR26 is deeply embedded in the host community (Stanthorpe) via the Ready Communities program enabling a range of locally led activities from case studies and site visits to sharing local wisdom.

The youth stream will interact throughout the program as audience, hosts and speakers. The proposed activities will contribute to the Discovery Phase providing a range of intel gathered at the conference.

2026 conference program structure

DAY ONE: 2 September

A full day of panels, Local Impact Labs, Pitchfest finished up with our welcome event.

DAY TWO: 3 September

Morning panel sessions followed by a range of practical workshops.

The day will conclude with our annual SIITR conference dinner.

DAY THREE: 4 September

A half day that's all about bringing our conference community together. Starting with a community breakfast BBQ. We will then move to facilitated networking. A great opportunity for changemakers, investors and policy makers to connect.
